MINISTER DISMISSED

Preacher Convicted Of Indulging In a Howling Drunk.

Captain David M. Shields Dismissed From The Army—Selection Made For Vacancy.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Post Chaplain David M. Shields has been dismissed from the army of the United States, to take effect February 1, and Rev. Edmund T. Easterbrook, of New York, has been selected for appointment to the vacancy. The action in the case of Chaplain Shields was the result of court-martial proceedings, at San Francisco, for conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, in consequence of the alleged use of intoxicating liquor, and the accused was convicted and sentenced to be dismissed. The case came before the President in the usual course of procedure, and he approved the sentence yesterday, directing it to take effect on the 1st proximo.

Chaplain Shields is a native of Pennsylvania and has been in the military service since August 16, 1897. His transgression occurred while en route to San Francisco in compliance with orders to join the army in the Philippines.

Jail Delivery.

Seven out of thirty-two prisoners escaped from the county branch prison at Palmyra, Tenn., Sunday night. Six were caught and returned the next day. William Harris is yet at large, having escaped into this State.

DISMISSED.

Bill Against Whallen and Ryan Set Aside.

Matter Will Again Be Referred to The Grand Jury At April Term.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—On motion of the attorneys for the defendant, assented to by Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin, the indictment against John H. Whallen and Charles H. Ryan was set aside in the Circuit Court this afternoon, and the matter is to again be referred to the grand jury at the April term.

The reason for the setting aside of the indictment is that one of the jurors was sick for one day during the investigation and an outside party was substituted.

DIED OF FEVER.

Little Daughter of John Charlton Succumbs to Disease.

Inis, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. John Charlton, died at the home of her parents, three miles east of the city, Wednesday night, after an illness of three weeks, of typhoid fever. The remains were interred in the family burying ground yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Charlton is very sick with the same disease.

FRIDAY, JAN. 26, 1900.

The Texas Legislature is holding a special session this week to consider a revision of the tax laws.

The Shiloh Battle Field Commission is in session at Chattanooga. The Kentucky Legislature will be asked to make an appropriation.

Henry A. Hazen, one of the chief forecasters of the Weather Bureau, died in Washington Tuesday night from injuries received the night before in a bicycle collision.

By a unanimous vote the House at Frankfort adopted the report of the committee, holding that Representative Ray, Democrat, of Garfield county, is entitled to his seat.

The Southern railway ran a train of one car and a locomotive, with one passenger from Salisbury, N.C., to Atlanta, Ga., 313 miles, in 279 minutes. The passenger wished to catch up with the limited train.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee, in a case against the L. & N. railroad, has decided that purchasers of excursion tickets must comply with all the conditions of the ticket before they can apply for damages.

The Comptroller of the Currency has approved the application of John R. Wylie, J. D. Deech, John C. Gates, J. W. Hollingsworth and J. A. Stegar to organize the Farmers' National Bank, of Princeton, with a capital of $50,000.

General Roberts, the new commander in Chief of the British forces in South Africa, it is said has a case of confluent honorary medals that appear over all parts of his uniform, making him look like a sample card of ornaments for a case-war prize winner.

Arrangements have been made at Washington for the interment in Arlington cemetery of the body of Maj. Gen. Lawton the day after the funeral party arrives. The transport bearing the party is due at San Francisco in two weeks at least. The body will be allowed to lie in state at Indianapolis and at Fort Wayne.

In the House, the Contest Committee that had under consideration the contest of Edward Marcum, Republican vs. A. P. Crawford, Democrat, reported unanimously in favor of Mr. Crawford retaining his seat as the member from Breathitt county. The report was unanimously adopted.

The first social event on a large scale that has taken place at Frankfort during this session of this General Assembly was given at the Capital hotel Tuesday evening. It was a brilliant affair, several hundred young ladies and gentlemen from the Blue grass cities and many other parts of the State being present.

A circus trust is about to be organized. Those interested in the proposed combination are Sells Bros., Jas. A. Baily and W. W. Cole. The only clause in the contract not agreed upon is as to where they shall make their winter quarters, the Sells people desiring to winter at Columbus, O., while the other members of the combination prefer Bridgeport, Conn.

The Legislative Gubernatorial Contest Committee extended the time for the introduction of oral testimony four days, two to the contestants and two for the contestants. The Republicans objected that two days were insufficient and the Democrats then yielded the extra days, only taking one for themselves, as originally assigned for rebuttal. On Monday the contestants will introduce witnesses in rebuttal and on Tuesday the arguments will begin. A vote by the Legislature will probably not be taken before the last of the week or possibly the first of the following week.

SINKING FORK NOTES.

Numerous Newsworthy Locals Sent In
From West Christian.

This lovely weather makes us forget that winter is here, and the blessed sunshine fills our hearts with light.

Elder T. D. Moore, of Hopkinsville, was unanimously chosen by the members of the Christian church at Sinking Fork, as pastor for this year. He will be cordially welcomed by those who know him, for he can beat the champion and believes he has more right to the premier honors than Jeffries has. It is not unlikely that another match between these heavy weights will be arranged in the near future.

Miss Vena Stephens spent Monday night at the "Sunny bank" homestead.

Mr. George White, of Pon, will make his home with Mr. G. T. Underwood this year.

Monday, Jan. 22, school opened at Pisgah, with Miss Helen Wood as teacher. Much success to her efforts.

Mr. Willy Colly is spending the winter at Mr. Geo. Diuguid's, charming young and old with his guitar.

A prominent Sinking Fork couple, Mr. L. M. Hill and Miss Lula Stephens, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Wednesday, Jan. 24, at 3 p.m.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's sister, near Madisonville, Rev. T. H. Moore officiating. The bridal party including Mr. Jim Hill and Miss Eva Stephens returned home Thursday.

A grand reception will be given them at the home of the bridegroom, where music will be the chief feature of enjoyment.

Their many friends congratulate them and wish them all the happiness that wedded life can give.

READY WIT

Saved a Western Congressman
From a Curtain Lecture.

In the seclusions of the House cloakrooms a story is being told on a Western member, says the Washington Post. There are 357 men in the House. Three hundred and fifty-six are hereby released from any connection with the story. The other man—and the other man's wife—will recognize the truth of what is here recorded.

The Western member went home at a very early hour in the morning. He had made a night of it with some friends. He knew that his conduct would be considered reprehensible by his better half, and so, as he ascended the steps of his modest home, he racked his brain for some plan to avert the lady's wrath. As he entered the hall he saw an umbrella. Instantly it occurred to him that the umbrella might be his salvation.

He carried the umbrella upstairs. Seating himself on a chair in the corner of the bed-room, he raised the rain guard over his head, and then he coughed loudly. His wife awoke and saw in the dim gaslight her liege lord sitting solemnly under the raised umbrella.

"What are you doing?" she asked, in natural surprise.

"It is 3 o'clock, my dear," said he, "and I am waiting for the storm."

The Congressman's ready wit saved him from a curtain lecture. He is worrying now, however, to find an equally effective act for the next time he stays out late.

COLSON'S TRIAL.

Next Wednesday Selected For Examination of Witnesses.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—In the Circuit Court this morning Attorney James Andrew Scott, for Col. David Colson, entered a motion that bail be allowed in the case. By agreement Wednesday, the 31st inst., was fixed to make a partial examination. Six witnesses will be heard on each side.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cough Cure is the only specific cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cough Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the disease and curing it. It strengthens the patient strength and builds up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Testimonials free. FRUITLESS EFFORT

To Prove Their Counter Charge
of Thin Ballots.Heavier Paper Used in Democratic Counties of Graves, Powell,
Breathitt and Others.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—The better part of to-day was devoted by the Republicans to a fruitless effort to prove to the Board of Contest that transparent ballots were used in the big Democratic county of Graves, and in the smaller counties of Breathitt, Powell and Wolfe, while several Republican election officers from Graves county have testified that by holding the Graves county ballot to the light the stencil mark could be seen plainly, yet when several of the ballots were produced they were shown to be of heavy glazed paper, which a careful inspection showed to be about twice as heavy as that used in Johnson, Knox, Magoffin and Martin counties the banner thin-ballot counties of the State.

It was shown in cross-examination of one of the contestants' witnesses, that the Republican County Clerk of Magoffin county first ordered his ballots printed by the Bradley & Gilbert Company, of Louisville, which printed the ballots for forty counties, and then countermanded the order.

The printing was afterward ordered from the same person that furnished the transparent ballots for Johnson, Knox and Martin counties.

MEETS IN COVINGTON.

Strong Program Arranged by State Executive Committee.

On Feb. 15-18, the Nineteenth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will meet at Covington, Ky.

A strong program has been arranged by the State Executive Committee.

Among those announced to participate are: Mr. Frank W. Ober, Editor "Association Men," Chicago; Mr. L. Wilbur Messer, General Secretary, Chicago; Mr. Chas. C. Stoll and Mr. John L. Wheat of Louisville; Mr. E. L. Shuey of Dayton, O.; Mr. C. C. Michener and Mr. John F. Moore, Secretaries International Committee, New York; Mr. J. M. Burwick, railroad men's evangelist; Mr. M. E. Ingalls, President C. & O. R. R., Cincinnati; Dr. John G. Fisher, Cincinnati; Jas. A. Curry and J. A. Stacky, M.D., of Lexington; Mr. W. Foster Hayes, of Owensboro, and others. The Bible Studies will be led by Rev. Henry Ostrom, the well known evangelist, and the singing will be in charge of Mr. John P. Pillis.

All the Associations of the State will be represented by large delegations. Young men, business men, and pastors from unorganized communities will be welcomed as corresponding members on obtaining credentials from the State Secretary. The friends of the Covington Association will provide entertainment for all duly accredited delegates and corresponding members, and the railroads of the State will grant a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip.

Programs, credentials and full information regarding the Convention may be obtained by writing Henry E. Rosewar, State Secretary, Fourth & Broadway, Louisville, Ky.

The contest committee in the case of Milton Young, Republican, against Embrey Allen, Democrat, from Fayette, reported unanimously in favor of Allen retaining his seat. Burnam and Whitehead, the two Republican members of the committee, both signing the report. The report was unanimously adopted.

Lectured at Crofton.

Crofton, Ky., Jan. 23.

EDITOR KUNKELIAN:

Prot. Barrett, an enthusiastic worker in the cause of temperance, delivered a series of very interesting lectures upon that subject in the Christian church the past week, closing Sunday night. While here, the Professor had to contend with very dark and stormy nights, but never failed to attract good audiences, and proved himself to be an effective and forceful speaker.

INTIMIDATION ARMY.

Soldiers on Their Way to Frankfort as "Witnesses."

Hundreds of Mountain Republicans Move on the Capital by Special Train.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—The second Republican army of intimidation, composed of soldiers in the guise of witnesses before the Contest Board, is expected to arrive here tomorrow morning from the mountain counties. The Republicans were more active to-day and to-night than usual, and preparations were made for the presentation of a large number of "witnesses," who are to be brought here at great expense, although it is known that only three more days are left for testimony, and that by a careful calculation it would take 540 days to examine all the Republican witnesses subpoenaed.

It may be a false alarm, but a Republican to-night confided to a friend that "something unusually sensational would develop early to-morrow morning, and it would not be the arrival of soldiers or any Federal interference."

The exact source of this "tip" is known, and apparently there are good reasons for believing it to be reliable.

The Democrats say they do not believe any of the rumors, as so many of the expected sensations by the Brown men and Republicans during this session have turned out to be false.

RAILWAY RATES GO UP.

An Increase of Ten Per Cent On Many Roads.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Rates on nearly 200 articles will be advanced by the roads west of Chicago by a classification that will go into effect in that territory this week. The increase in charges will average about 10 per cent, though in many cases the advance is more and will affect every article received by railroads for shipment. The rates have not been advanced directly, but the result is the same. Instead of dealing with the rates the articles affected have been placed in higher classifications.

Merchants and shippers throughout the affected territory, which is bounded by a line down through Chicago and St. Louis on the east and the Pacific Coast on the west, the Canadian line on the north and the Gulf of Mexico on the south, are protesting vigorously against the advance.

A meeting of the representatives of the railroads and the protesting shippers will be held in Chicago Feb. 6 to discuss the classification. More than 200 roads are to use the new classification.

CALIFORNIA CULTIVATORS

Are Happy Over the Big Yield of Oranges.

The yield of oranges in California this season is about 15,000,000 carloads, or between 4,200,000 and 4,500,000 boxes. There has never before been such a yield of oranges in California. Last year the crop was about 9,000 carloads, and the year before it was 8,000 carloads. The prices, too, are the best in 10 years. In a general way the present orange crop is worth to the growers about $4,600,000.

STRIKED WITH PARALYSIS

While Getting Out of Bed and Death Resulted.

Holloman Elliott, a worthy colored citizen, died suddenly yesterday morning at his home on South Clay street, aged about 60 years. He was a plasterer and brick mason by trade and on Tuesday worked all day plastering a cistern. On getting out of bed Wednesday morning he was attacked with a stroke of paralysis and never regained consciousness. He was unmarried and a member of the G. A. R., having served in the Federal army during the civil war.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out all waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work well. False aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is overtaxed. It is also responsible for impure blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles could be traced to the kidneys, but modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by consulting Dr. Kilmers' book, "How to Live and the Extraordinary Effect of Dr. Kilmers' Swamp-Root," the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for kidney trouble, and most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a copy of this book also pamphlet telling you to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmers & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. *

Having a Great Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one and another, and is doing a great amount of business. This is due largely to the fact that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief with a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Journal. For sale by R. C. Hardwick Druggist.

He Had Cause to Rejoice.

"A young man came into our store yesterday suffering from a severe attack of appendicitis. He was a miller and general merchant, Dickey's Mountain, Pa. He had tried various home remedies without relief. As I had used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I gave him a dose and it soon brought him out all right. I never saw a fellow so rejoiced." Said by R. C. Hardwick, Druggist.

WILL ADJOURN TOMORROW.

"Standing Room" Has Been at Premium Since Sunday.

The Tax Supervisors are putting in the week hearing complaints of tax payers whose assessments were raised at the meeting of the board days ago. A large number of notices were sent out by the Sheriff and in nearly every case there has been a response, and "standing space" at the door of the room where the board is in session has been at a premium every day. The board will adjourn tomorrow.

TITLES IN AMERICA.

In March Contract with the European Custom.

We are monstrously fond of titles in the United States. A little while ago a federal judge in a western territory told me that he should receive a letter that was not addressed to "The Honorable" he would decline to read it, taking for granted that the writer desired to treat him with indignity. This recalls the story of the Georgia lawyer who had been elevated to the bench. His wife said to him: "Law, John, if you are judge, what is it?"

"Oh, was the ungracious reply, "you will be the same old fool you always were."

But it is not unheard of for wives of men of rank to take the husband's titles. All of us have heard of "Mrs. Gen. Smith," of "Mrs. Dr. Jones," and even of "Mrs. Rev. Brown." When I went to school I was taught that this was a vulgar practice and that idea has still some vitality, though I do not know that it deserves it. If we use the husband's title in addressing the wife by way of description and identification, it has a certain use; if we use it merely to flatter, that is another matter. In continental Europe this form of address is almost universal.

As a matter of fact, most of the titles of courtesy used in this country are quite unwarranted. When the matter was discussed in the convention which framed the constitution of the United States, titles were threshed over extensively. It was proposed to call the president "His Majesty," "His Highness," "His Mightiness" and "His Excellency." But the plain sense of the plain people prevailed, and our chief executive, who yields a power greater than any constitutional sovereign in the world, is merely "The President." If we had had it decided for us that we are not to call our chief official any of these things, it seems absurd that lesser officers should be so called. And it is absurd, and except in Massachusetts, without warrant of law. In Massachusetts it was gravely decreed that the governor should be "His Excellency" and the lieutenant governor "The Honorable."

Our ministers to foreign countries get used to being called "Your Excellency" and the attachés and clerks in an embassy often speak of their chief in that way. It is very ridiculous. They never by any chance receive such complimentary decorations from the state department. When Mr. Choate went abroad in the spring his instructions were addressed to Joseph H. Choate, esquire. Yet an alderman in Oshkosh or Kalamazoo would be expected to be "The Honorable." The use of exclamation in America is rather puzzling. In England it is attached to the names of men in the gentry and to professional men whose social position elevates them above that of tradesmen. Here it is going out of use.

Our fondness for titles and decorations of honor is also expressed in the badges we wear. Take a thousand Americans at random, and 900 will have on badges signifying membership in some kind of society all the way from a masonic lodge to the Grand Army of the Republic and a bicycle club. And the less important the association the more numerous and conspicuous the decorating badges. Even though we are Americans and democrats, a good deal of the parental monkey still survives in our nature.—John Gilmer Speed, in Saturday Evening Post.

People would be more apt to turn over a new leaf if they could only paste it down so it would stick.

TOBACCO MARKET.

(Reported by J. H. Eggleston, of Cumming & Eggleston Co. (incorporated), buyer of tobacco in and out of hand of leaf tobacco.)

Hopkinsville, Jan. 24, 1900. There is no change to note on the break market this week. The offerings continue rather poor and know doubt but what all the special grades of Italian, Bremen and Regie kinds are being held back for these demands a little later. While the offerings are small at the warehouse, the loose receipts have been exceedingly large. Ten large wagon loads sold today. The competition continues strong and active for every offering offered. Weather continues good for handling, and in a short time all the tobacco will be out of the first-hands.

FORBIDDEN IN FIVE.

States in the Union That Inflict Death Penalty.

The states in which the death penalty is forbidden by law are Colorado, Rhode Island, Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin. In Rhode Island the only alternative is imprisonment for life. In Kansas the signature of the Governor is necessary to an execution. The death penalty is inflicted in all the states for murder, except the five above named; and, in addition, in Louisiana, for rape, assault with intent to kill, administering poison, arson and burglary; in Delaware and North Carolina, for rape, arson and burglary; in Alabama, for rape, arson, robbery, treason, immoral relations with female under 10 years of age, or married woman by falsely impersonating her husband; in Georgia, for rape, mayhem and arson; in Missouri, for perjury and rape; in Virginia, West Virginia, South Carolina and Mississippi, for rape and arson; in Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, Texas and Arkansas, for rape; in Montana, for arson of dwelling by night; in Maryland, for any variety of arson. In some of these instances the Court may, in its discretion, substitute imprisonment. In New York and Ohio the death penalty is now inflicted by the means of electricity.

THAT BAG!

Lady Makes a Bad Mistake in a London Omnibus.

The other day a London omnibus, full of passengers, drove up to its suburban terminus. Side by side sat a commercial traveler and a lady temperance lecturer. The commercial traveler seized his bag and started out. The lady made a grab after him, and he halted.

"I beg your pardon," she said, "but you have my bag."

"You are certainly mistaken, madam," the traveler said, courteously but firmly; "this is mine."

"No, sir," the lady replied firmly; "it is mine. I should know it among a thousand. You must not take it."

But the traveler persisted and the lady insisted, and they came very near quarreling. Presently one of the passengers pointed to a twin bag in the omnibus, and asked: "Whose is that?"

"It isn't mine," said the traveler. "It is just like it, but this is mine."

"And it isn't mine," said the lady. "He has mine, and I want it, or I'll have the law on him. It's a pity if a lady can't travel alone in this country without being robbed of her property in broad daylight."

Finally, the traveler said he would open the bag to prove his property. The lady objected at first, saying she did not want her bag opened in the presence of a crowd of strangers. But, as there was no other means of settling the dispute, she at length consented. The traveler sprang the lock, opened the bag and the curious crowd bent forward to see. On the very top of everything lay a big, flat flask half full of whisky, a pack of cards, a meerschaum pipe, a quarter of a pound of tobacco and one or two things that nobody knows the name of. The traveler was the first to recover his self-possession and speech. "Madam," he said, "you are right. The bag is yours. I owe a thousand apolo—"

But the lady had fainted, and the traveler relocked his bag with a quiet smile. Early in the afternoon a sign painter received a note, in a feminine hand, asking him to come to a certain house to mark a black leather bag in white letters 14 feet deep.—London Tit-Bits.

OFFICERS IN BATTLE.

Should Not Needlessly Expose Themselfs to the Enemy's Fire.

"That British tradition about standing up under fire doesn't hold good among American officers," said Maj. R. F. Bates, late of the Eighteenth, speaking with the authority of 32 years consecutive service. "We don't do it for several reasons. It isn't safe and it isn't sensible, and it isn't just to the men. A soldier is, or ought to be, a machine. He is there simply to do the fighting, and the officers are there to do the thinking. No one man can do both at the same time, and if the officers are killed the troops are like an engine without an engineer—very likely to go to smash. Consequently an officer who needlessly exposes himself is wronging his men. There are moments, of course, when it is necessary to entice and encourage them—usually just before a charge—and then the chap with the shoulder straps must be ready to jump up and rush to the front; but I am speaking of the general rule during a prolonged engagement.

"The British theory that it nerves and heartens the men on the ground to see officers strolling around smoking cigarettes in a hall of bullets strikes me as all nonsense. I don't know of anything more demoralizing to men lying under fire than the sight of their leaders being shot down before their eyes. How could it possibly have made the soldiers at Glencooe any cooler to see nearly every one of their officers get up and fall down again, rolled with bullets? The great point in battle is to have the troops ready and willing to advance at the word, and it's hard to make them do it after such an object lesson in the danger of rising from cover. In the Philippines our company officers lay down with the men until the word came to charge. Then they sprang up, yelled 'Come on, boys!' and carried off the affair with a rush and a hurrah. It never failed to work to a charm."

LOSS WAS TOTAL.

Tobacco Barn and Contents Destroyed by Fire.

A large tobacco barn belonging to Mrs. Massie, a widow lady living near Elmo, was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. The building contained a large quantity of fine tobacco, which was also reduced to ashes. Hands had been engaged in stripping the weed the day before and had a fire in the barn. The supposition is that in some way the tobacco caught from the embers. Mrs. Massie carried no insurance and her loss, which amounts to possibly $1,500 or $2,000, was total.

SOME SLIGHT CHANGES

To Be Made in I. C. Time Card Sunday.

There will be a change in the schedule of I. C. trains on the Ohio Valley division, in effect next Sunday. The exact changes of time have not yet been announced, but it is understood that they will only be slight. The train due to leave this city at 11:30 a. m., will probably depart ten minutes later. The corrected schedule will be given in next Tuesday's issue of the KENTUCKIAN. The change of time card will not affect the connection at Princeton.

MOBLEY-KING.

Tennessee Furnished the Groom and Kentucky the Bride.

Mr. R. L. Mobley, a resident of Tennessee, and Miss Maude King, a pretty and popular South Christian lady, were married last Tuesday evening. They immediately left for their future home in Tennessee.

Mr. J. B. Fisher, who recently purchased a farm near Mason's Mill, South Christian, moved to his new home this week.

Tharlie Terry has resigned his position at the City Bank, and will in a few days go to Adairville to make his future home.

Mr. R. E. Leigh and family have decided to locate in Hopkinsville and will remove to that city in a few days. Mr. Leigh has a position as salesman with Mr. N. L. McKee, the grocer.—Elkton Progress.

Mr. Lewis Waller has resigned his position with Kitchen & Waller and accepted a place with Dagg & Richards, as superintendent of their yards. Mr. Waller is a very capable young man, having held a position with the former firm for several years, and will no doubt fill the new place in a most acceptable manner.

AN EXCELLENT EXHIBIT.

Large Crowds Attracted to Poultry Show in Louisville.

Interest in the poultry show increases with each succeeding day, says The Times. The 1,200 cocking fowls at Music Hall form the best exhibition of the kind ever made in Kentucky. The exhibition of Barred Plymouth Rocks, as well as White and Brown Leghorns, is the finest ever seen in Louisville. In these three classes alone there are 500 birds. The show will be open until 10 o'clock Saturday night.

One of the best exhibits of the show is made by Carl C. Moore, of Hopkinsville, who has twenty-five Cornish Indians exhibited. The breed is Oriental. The plumage of the birds is rich gold and brown. Mr. Mr. Moore has been a prize winner at a number of big shows.
